AUSTRALIAN WINE INDUSTRY CODE OF CONDUCT

LIST OF INDEPENDENT EXPERTS

AND

DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

December 2014
Overview of the dispute resolution process under the Code of Conduct

Disputes in the main occur over the perceived inadequacy of the winegrape price, or over an apparent failure to comply with specifications for winegrape maturity, purity or condition resulting in either price adjustments or rejection of the winegrapes.

The Code requires both parties to participate in the Dispute Resolution procedure and to assist the Independent Expert by providing any information requested.

Any Disputing Party who invokes the Dispute Resolution Procedures is agreeing to be bound by the Code in relation to the conduct of the Dispute, in particular the clauses relating to defamation and cost recovery. The existence of a Dispute does not relieve any party of the obligations under the agreement between a winegrape supplier and a signatory to the Code.

The process in brief

Disputes over Winegrape Price

Step 1
Within 7 business days of the dispute arising, the disputing party sends a Notice of Dispute to the other party and forwards a copy to the Code Secretariat. The Notice of Dispute is available from www.wineindustrycode.org/Dispute_Resolution.html or contact the Code Secretariat. The Secretariat contact details are at the bottom of this section of this document.

Step 2
Within 7 business days of receiving the Notice of Dispute, the respondent replies in writing and informs the Code Secretariat in writing that a response has been provided.

Step 3
The Code Secretariat will endeavour to contact the parties to try to help them resolve the dispute informally.

Step 4
If, within 14 business days from the issue of the Notice of Dispute, the parties cannot negotiate a settlement to the dispute, they must jointly endeavour to appoint an Independent Expert. The list of Independent Experts is in this document.

Step 5
If, after 21 business days from the issue of the Notice of Dispute, the parties cannot agree on the selection of an Independent Expert, they can, within 28 business days of the issue of the Notice of Dispute, apply to the Code Administration Committee via the Secretariat, for the appointment of an Independent Expert from the panel.
Step 6
The Code Secretariat will coordinate the appointment of an Independent Expert.

Step 7
Within 14 business days of his or her appointment, the Independent Expert will deliver a determination.

Disputes over Downgrades and Rejections in the Vineyard

Step 1
When a dispute arises, the disputing party sends a written Notice of Dispute to the winegrape purchaser and sends a copy to the Code Secretariat. The Notice of Dispute is available from www.wineindustrycode.org/Downloads.html or contact the Code Secretariat. The Secretariat contact details are at the bottom of this section of this document.

Step 2
Within 2 days (48 hours) from the time of issue of the Notice of Dispute, the winegrape purchaser will respond in writing and inform the Code Secretariat in writing that a response has been provided.

Step 3
The Code Secretariat will endeavour to contact the parties to try to help them resolve the dispute informally.

Step 4
If, after 3 days (72 hours) from the time of issue of the Notice of Dispute, the dispute is ongoing, the parties will jointly endeavour to appoint an Independent Expert.

Step 5
If, within 4 days (96 hours) from the time of issue of the Notice of Dispute, the parties are unable to agree on the selection of an Independent Expert, either party can apply to the Code Committee via the Secretariat for the appointment of an Independent Expert, the application to be made within 5 days (120 hours) of the time of issue of the Notice of Dispute.

Step 6
The Code Secretariat will coordinate the appointment of an Independent Expert.

Step 7
Within 48 hours of his or her appointment, the Independent Expert will deliver a determination.
